Home Made Suet

Mix 5 lbs. Yellow cornmeal
 2 ½ ilbs flour
 melt 3 ½ cups lard and 2 cups peanut butter
 Gradually pour liquid over the dry ingredients blending and adding more liquid till it reaches a fairly firm consistency.
 Add raisins, cracked corn, sunflower seeds.
 In early spring add crushed egg shells.
 Pack mixture into pans and put in freezer until firm enough to cut. Cut into squares to fit suet feeding, then freeze until hard.
 Sore in bag in the freezer. The cakes can be hung on trees using suet cage or mesh onion bags.
 Attacks blue jays, woodpeckers and chickadees.

Thank you to

 with the distribution of Katimavik!

They are back! Actually it is a new group of young people who have moved into Lorette until the end of March but the purpose of the project remains the same. They are young Canadians from all across Canada learning more about their country, their two official languages and how to get along with each other.

They will be spending 35 hours a week volunteering around town and in the schools. With only $5.05 per person allotted for food, they bake their own bread and make sauces from scratch. Imagine sharing a house with eleven teenagers! What about only one shower! Yes, these young people do learn about group building and teamwork.

We are delighted to welcome them to Lorette.
