Green Scrubbers

Trees and grass in the landscape can reduce the amount of dirt and dust by trapping it on the leaf surface. We plant them for beauty but by their very nature they provide us with an environmental green shield. Landscape plants dilute gaseous pollutants in the air and release life-sustaining oxygen. They prevent erosion, preserve water and purify the air. Where else can we get such a return for our small investment!

Raised Flowerbeds

Raised flowerbeds are a good solution where soil is either non-existent or of poor quality. Walls may be made from pressure treated wood, mortared brick, reinforced concrete or stone. They should be at least 15 cm (6") deep.

For easy maintenance keep raised beds no wider than 1.2 m (4'). By filling some raised beds with a well-drained sandy mix and others with rich loam, you can provide the best soil requirements for a variety of plants.
